Chato's ACE Influencers

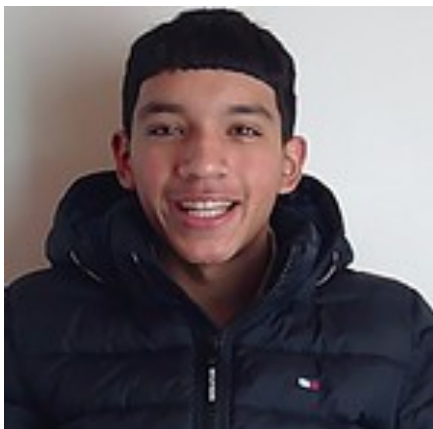

Cristian Munguia and Daniel Young

Daniel and Cristian are sharing this week's "Do the Right Thing" award for finding and returning a pair of headphones that had been left outside after lunch. They took the headphones to an adult, and thanks to them they were successfully returned to the owner!

Luis Gonzalez-Perez and Eduardo de la Cruz

Luis and Eduardo are sharing this week's "Build Your Reputation" award for the amazing work they have done to decorate ACE for the holidays!

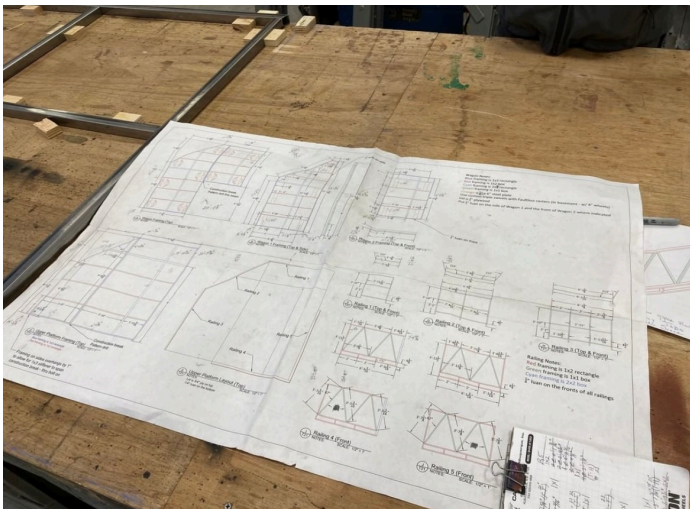

The school is looking festive and fun, and we couldn't have done it without their help!

PROJECT SPOTLIGHT

Deck the Sets – Mr. Dusty, Mrs. Sofia, and Mr. Patrick

In our “Deck the Sets” class, students are focusing on how text on a page gets translated into sets for movies, shows, plays, and operas. To help them do this, our project teachers are working with them to give them skills such as literary critique, plot analysis, and the essentials of art.

Throughout the trimester the class will be examining classic works such as Hamlet and The Secret Life of Walter Mitty, as well as some classical works like Harry Potter. Finally, to enrich students' understanding of New Mexico history, students will also read a selection of stories from New Mexican folklore.
